

LINDSAY, Philemon, Bishop of the Ovid Ward, Bear Lake county, Idaho, is a son of Wm. B. Lindsay and Permelia Ann Blackmun and was born Aug. 23, 1867, at Kaysville, Davis county, Utah. In July, 1866, he was baptized by Thos. Slight. Subsequently he was ordained a Deacon and later an Elder, became a Seventy in 1884 and a High Priest and Bishop July 15, 1888, being ordained by Wm. Budge and set apart to preside over the Ovid Ward, in which capacity he still serves. In 1886-88 he filled a mission to the Southern States, laboring in Tennessee, North Carolina and Virginia. At home he has always been a consistant Church worker, having acted as Sunday school and Ward teacher for many years. In 1881 (Sept. 29th) he married Marintha Athay, who has borne him ten children, five boys and five girls. Since 1886 he has been a resident of Ovid, having previously resided in Davis county, Utah. His chief occupations have been saw-milling, farming and stock-raising; for five years he was foreman of the Temple sawmill in Logan canyon. He has also served his fellow-citizens as county coroner and county commissioner in Bear Lake county. LDS Bio E 2: 267

ENCYCLOPEDIA

267

PHILEMON LINDSAY

Son of William Buckminster Lindsay, Jr. and Permelia Blackman. Born Aug. 23, 1857, Kaysville, Utah. Ordained Bishop of Ovid, Idaho, 1888. County Commissioner.

LINDSAY, PHILEMON (son of William Buckminster Lindsay and Permelia Blackman). Born Aug. 23, 1857, at Kaysville.

Married Marantha Athay Sept. 29, 1881, at Salt Lake City (daughter of James Athay and Ellen Morris of London, Eng., pioneers 1864). She was born July 25, 1861. Their children: Minnie b. Feb. 22, 1883, m. John C. Sorenson, Lago, Idaho; Philemon LeRoy b. June 25, 1884, m. Josephine Peterson; Ellen L. b. Jan. 6, 1889, d. March 7, 1889; Hazel b. May 22, 1890, m. Oliver Peterson; James C. b. May 7, 1892; Willard b. Jan. 27, 1895; Lyman b. Dec. 11, 1897; Beatrice b. Aug. 11, 1898, d. Sept. 12, 1898; Blanche b. Nov. 5, 1899; Wallace b. July 7, 1903. Family home Ovid, Bear Lake Co., Idaho.

Worked on Temple sawmill in Logan Canyon 1878. Missionary to southern states 1886-88; bishop of Ovid ward 1888. County coroner 1895; county commissioner three terms.

1007

PHILEMON LINDSAY

Son of William Buckminster Lindsay, Jr. and Permelia Blackman. Born Aug. 23, 1857, Kaysville, Utah. Ordained Bishop of Ovid, Idaho, 1888. County Commissioner.

328

LINDSAY, PHILEMON (son of William Buckminster Lindsay and Permelia Blackman). Born Aug. 23, 1857, at Kaysville.

Married Marantha Athay Sept. 29, 1881, at Salt Lake City (daughter of James Athay and Ellen Morris of London, Eng., pioneers 1864). She was born July 25, 1861. Their children: Minnie b. Feb. 22, 1883, m. John C. Sorenson, Lago, Idaho; Philemon LeRoy b. June 25, 1884, m. Josephine Peterson; Ellen L. b. Jan. 6, 1889, d. March 7, 1889; Hazel b. May 22, 1890, m. Oliver Peterson; James C. b. May 7, 1892; Willard b. Jan. 27, 1895; Lyman b. Dec. 11, 1897; Beatrice b. Aug. 11, 1898, d. Sept. 12, 1898; Blanche b. Nov. 5, 1899; Wallace b. July 7, 1903. Family home Ovid, Bear Lake Co., Idaho.

Worked on Temple sawmill in Logan Canyon 1878. Missionary to southern states 1886-88; bishop of Ovid ward 1888. County coroner 1895; county commissioner three terms.

1007